Board Meeting

The Library Board of Directors will meet at 5:00 PM on Thursday, October 12. The public is welcome to attend in the main level conference room. Those wishing to be included on the agenda should contact the Library Director Kate McBride.

Breast Cancer
Awareness Month

October is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. According to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, "breast cancer is one of the most common kinds of cancer in women after skin cancer. About 1 in 8 women today born in the United States will get breast cancer at some point." Your library has multiple resources about detection and treatment as well as stories of survivors. Make time to look at the display of materials and information near the circulation desk.

Be sure to also enter a FREE raffle to win a breast cancer awareness T-shirt and keychain!

ACTIVITIES

Preschool Program

October 10th

10:30 AM - 11:15 AM

Located in the north basement meeting room.

Come join the fun!

Age ranges from birth to 5 years old

(No library card necessary.)

Craft-a-Card

This program is appropriate for all ages.

Make your own greeting card at the library! Stop in the conference room any time between 10:00 AM and 4:30 PM on October 25th. Supplies will be provided.

Bring your creativity and a friend!

Free of charge.

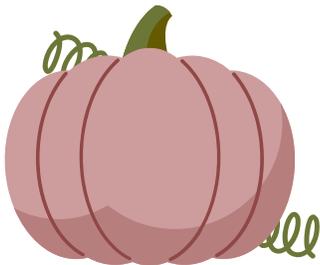

No library card necessary.

LOST: HARVEY THE GHOST

Every month in our newsletters, an animal will be hidden somewhere on any of the pages of the newsletter. The first person to find and return their newsletter with the animal circled to the circulation desk will be the winner. The winner of the month will win their choice of a free book from the sale room. Can you help find Harvey? Good luck!

This program is designed for ages 18 and older.

Book-O-Lantern

The Salem Public Library is hosting a Book-O-Lantern Competition! Decorate a pumpkin to represent a story you enjoy or to look like your favorite book character.

Anyone can participate, all you need is your creativity and a pumpkin (artificial pumpkins are allowed as well)! No library card is required.

Use paint, markers, glue, fabric, etc., but no carving please! Bring your creation to the library between October 3rd and 14th.

Judging will begin October 16th and last until October 24th. Prizes of candy or a book will be awarded (winner's choice). Have fun and good luck!

Recollections

"Recollections" is a revival of Salem Public Library's older adult program, an opportunity to gather and share memories on a central theme. While anyone is welcomed, content is designed for those who are at least 60 years of age. Programs will be held in the library's downstairs meeting room at 10:30 AM on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. Please use the outside ramp or stairs on the north side of the building. Library membership is not required and there is no fee for participation.

ACTIVITIES

Library Cards

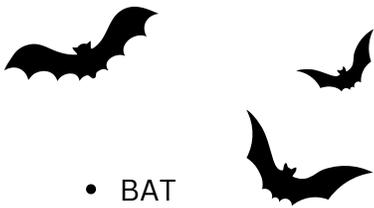

Many Patrons will agree that their library card is one of the most important in their wallet. Getting a card is easy. Simply present a photo I.D. and proof of address. People living within the Salem city limits pay for library privileges through real estate and personal property taxes. So, there is not charge to sign up. Because folks living outside the city limits do not pay these taxes, they pay the library directly for the same privileges. The cost is $25.00 for a six month membership or $50.00 for an annual membership.

We also want to stress that anyone is allowed to use the library. The only reason you need a library card is to check out items. Even if you do not have a card, you are more than welcome to visit the library; find a place to read a book off the shelves; participate in programs; and so much more! There is also a paperback trade program where you can bring in pocket-sized paperbacks and exchange them for select pocket-sized paperbacks in our sale room. There is also always a 50¢ book sale. Discarded magazines are available and are free to take.

Please feel free to reach out to us at 573-729-4331 or visit us at the library. Library staff will be more than happy to answer any questions you may have!

REVIEW

Book Review: Twenty Years at Hull House by Jane Addams

When Columbus first arrived in the New World, there were over 300 Native American tribes just in the U. S. speaking different languages, with different cultures. Tribes lived everywhere from the Arctic Circle to the tip of South America. Much of this has been lost with the disappearance of many of these peoples.

I know little about most of these peoples. When I came across an interview with a Lakota author in a Cowboys and Indians magazine found on the free magazine shelf, I was intrigued with his list of other Native American authors and their books. This month I started small with a series of easy reading books about different tribes.

Virginia Driving Hawk Sneve teamed up with Himmel as illustrator to present basic information about many tribes, one at a time. These books are available through Evergreen. I requested four of them and have requested four more.

Since I was watching the Longmire series, the Cheyennes were on the list. I'd always thought each tribe was a cohesive unit. Not so. The Cheyennes had several groups split into the northern groups and the southern groups.

Pushed out of Minnesota, the Cheyennes were nomadic traders taking goods from the east such as blankets, knives and cooking pots to tribes in the West where they got pelts to take east. Even now they no longer have a home, but a small reservation in southern Montana for the northern groups and trust lands in Oklahoma for the southern groups.

After reading the Hillerman series, I tackled the Navajos or Dine. Originally from the Pacific coast, these farmers were known to the Spanish who gave them the name. After being put on a reservation, the tribe became famous for their jewelry and blankets, both of which are beautiful. Tourism is another source of income for the tribe today.

The Apaches book left me wanting more information than found in the few pages. However, all of the books have been good, basic introductions to the tribes we often hear about, but learn little about.

Karen GoatKeeper is a local author with two books on the Missouri Shelf: "Exploring the Ozark Hills" of nature essays and photographs and "My Ozark Home" of nature photographs with haiku.
